

SOCIETY

Society had a motif this week, and will have for a portion of the coming week, in the presence of His Royal Highness, Prince Ferdinando of Savoy, cousin of the King of Italy, who arrived on Thursday on the Italian cruiser Calabria, as a midshipman. The Prince is a very young man, but is quite popular. He is now seeing the world for the first time. The captain of the cruiser is the Count Moreneo di Moriondo, a tall, handsome officer of very polished manners. The duty of entertaining the Prince and officers has fallen upon Acting Italian Consul Wilhelm Lanz and Mrs. Lanz, the Italian Consul, Mr. F. A. Schaefer being absent from the islands. On Thursday evening Consul Lanz entertained informally at dinner at his Punahou street residence for Captain Moriondo and two other officers. On Friday the Prince and most of the officers, together with a number of townsfolk went to Haleiwa in a special car as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lanz. In the party were Mrs. Chas. B. Cooper, Mrs. Herman Pocke, Miss Lady Macfarlane, Portuguese Consul A. de Souza Canavarro, Hon. A. S. Cleghorn and Mr. James Gordon Spencer. The same evening the Prince and Captain Moriondo entertained at dinner aboard the Calabria for Mr. and Mrs. Lanz, Captain and Mrs. Niblack, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Miss Lady Macfarlane. Yesterday shortly after 11 a. m., the U. S. S. Iroquois took a gay party, including the Prince and Italian officers and local folk to Pearl Harbor, the guests of Captain and Mrs. Niblack. The party returned to town about 4. The guests included Governor Carter, Captain di Moriondo, Prince Ferdinando of Savoy and officers of the Calabria, Capt. Lyon, U. S. N., and Mrs. Lyon, Major and Mrs. Van Vleet, British Consul and Mrs. de B. Lazard, Acting German Consul and Mrs. Pfotenauer, the Chilean Consul and Mrs. Pocke, Acting Consul and Mrs. Lanz, Captain and Mrs. Schaefer, Captain and Mrs. Schuman, Lieut. and Mrs. Hannah, Captain and Mrs. Combe, Mr. and Mrs. Hanneberg, Miss Schaefer, Mr. and Mrs. George Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Gainer, Mr. Finlayson, Mr. and Mrs. Rodiek, Lieut. and Mrs. Slattery, Mr. and Mrs. Gartley, Miss Packe, Mr. John H. Bliss, Messrs. Henry and Edgar Ames and Mr. Conradt.

On Monday afternoon the Italian party will be the guests of Consul and Mrs. Lanz at the Fred Macfarlane place at Waikiki, canoeing and surfing to be the program. Supper will be served afterwards at the Lanz home. On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Lanz will give a large dinner party in honor of Prince Ferdinando.

Mrs. Earl of Los Angeles was the guest of several little dinner parties during the week. On Wednesday evening she was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson. The table was attractive with its decorations of Mexican creeper. On Thursday evening Captain and Mrs. Humphrey entertained her and Mrs. Babbitt gave a pot supper for her on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Earl returns to her home by the steamship Ventura, leaving October 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanneberg have taken apartments at the Hawaiian Hotel.

The pot luncheon given at the Alexander Young Hotel on Tuesday at noon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Jennings Bryan was a pretty affair. The circular table was attractive with red carnations, a huge cluster occupying the center. At each plate was a calabash of poi, and other indigenous dishes of a luau, including young coconuts just opened, the milk being drunk directly therefrom. The menu cards were artistic souvenirs in colors done by Harry Couzens. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Bryan, Miss Grace Bryan and Mr. W. J. Bryan, Jr., the guests were Prince and Princess Kawanakoa, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McClanahan, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. MRS. PHILIP M. LYDIG AND HER NEW HAT.

The largest and most wonderful hat ever seen in Newport has been brought out by Mrs. Philip M. Lydig of New York, wife of Capt. Philip Lydig, who was stationed in Honolulu in 1898 with the First New York Volunteer Regiment, as quartermaster, U. S. A.

Mrs. Lydig is among the most splendidly gowned women in Newport, and is the originator of the double-veil fad. When it became known that she would appear in a new hat society expected something startling. Indeed, Parisian and Newport hat merchants sent designers to keep a close watch on the new piece of headwear, says the Philadelphia North American.

The hat justifies all the preliminary interest. It is of black straw, extremely wide, twelve inches from the crown to the end of the brim, and with the crown raised one and one-half inches.

On the right side is an iris of black peacock feathers twenty inches long, and a long black lace veil is worn, with large velvet dots.

Clanahan, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Woods, Mr. R. H. Trent.

The house was charmingly decorated with flowers and a profusion of palms, and the Ellis Quintet Club added sweet music to the pleasure of the afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Mary Gunn will begin her dancing classes the middle of the month, and will show many new dances which she picked up on the Coast during the summer.

The marriage of Miss Eva Pratt Cartwright, the grand niece and adopted daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth K. Pratt, to Mr. Dwight Jarvis Styne, was solemnized at high noon, Wednesday, October 4, at St. Andrew's Cathedral, Rev. Canon Mackintosh officiating. The wedding was most attractive, although only relatives and immediate friends were present. The bride, who is a charming island girl, looked well in her bridal gown of ivory white crepe de chene over white taffeta. A picture hat completed the exquisite costume. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. The maid of honor, Miss Nalani Jones, gowned in pink silk mull, and carrying a bouquet of white carnations, preceded the bride, who followed with Mr. Richard H. Trent, who gave the bride away. Mr. Ralph Lyon served the groom as best man. After the ceremony the party drove to the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, where the young couple received congratulations on the Waikiki lanai. A breakfast was served in one of the private dining rooms, which was beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns. A quintet club played during the breakfast. At 3 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Styne departed for the Peninsula where they are spending their honeymoon. On their return they will make their home at 1036 Kinau street.
